The person has the right to present the complaint or appeal formally and in writing.

Procedure

Should a person have a complaint or appeal, the following steps are to be followed:

1. Discuss the issue directly with those involved to try and resolve it verbally.
2. If no resolution is reached, discuss the issue with Head of Faculty to see if it can be resolved.
3. If this resolves the situation, the outcomes will be put in writing and signed by both parties. One of the two copies of the outcome will be placed on file with the Head of Faculty and securely stored.
4. If there is still no resolution, the person should put the following information relating to the complaint or appeal in writing addressed to the CEO and submitted to the RTO Manager. This written notification can be made by email or letter and must include:
 - A description of the complaint or appeal
 - A statement about whether the person wishes to formally present their case
 - Information about any prior steps taken to deal with the complaint or appeal
 - What they would like to happen to fix the problem and prevent it from happening again
5. A written acknowledgement of receipt of the complaint/appeal will be forwarded to the complainant within five working days.
6. The CEO will either deal with the issue personally, or arrange for it to be dealt with by a management representative. This process must commence within two working days from the time the CEO receives the written notification and a response/resolution must be presented within 14 working days.
7. The CEO will:
 - Undertake a preliminary enquiry to determine nature of the complaint/appeal
 - Inform other relevant parties (if necessary)
 - Provide all parties an opportunity to present their case (with a support person and/or parent/guardian if a student is under 18 years of age)

St Andrew's Anglican College

- Discuss with the parties any resolution and any arrangements required by the RTO
 - Record the outcome of discussion
 - Provide the outcome in writing to the person (and other parties if relevant)
8. Should the issue still not be resolved to the person's satisfaction, St Andrew's Anglican College will make arrangements for an independent party to resolve the issue and outline any costs that may be involved with this to happen, to the person. The person will be given the opportunity to formally present their case. The time frame for this process may vary but should take no longer than 14 working days.
9. All parties involved will receive a written statement of the outcomes, including reasons for the decision within the 14-working day period. If the process is taking longer than 60 days from the complaint or appeal being received, the person will be notified in writing of the reason for the delay, and kept informed of all progress.
10. If the person is still not happy with outcomes from the independent process, they may take their complaint to the VET Regulator - the Australian Skills Quality Authority.
