

Week 8 Update

Dear Musical Parents

Friday was a great rehearsal, the Vulgarian Anthem is taking shape, Toot Sweets is coming together and our song for Grandparents Day is sounding lovely. There is so much energy at rehearsals which makes Friday afternoons a lot of fun...keep this up. As we move on, a number of smaller parts are being given out and Miss Swift is always on the lookout for the most enthusiastic, energetic and hardworking cast members.

On Friday, the cast were given their lyric books that Mrs Gough has spent a lot of time creating for them. They are to bring these books with them for the rest of the term and there will be no replacements if they are lost. If they do lose them, Mrs Hewitt will have a PDF copy that the parents can email and ask for. Please bring them every Friday, look after them and make sure your name is on them.

With only a couple of weeks remaining in Term 1 it will be Term 2 before we know it and the show will really start to gather momentum. We have included the message below that was in last week's bulletin as an FYI.

We would like to point out a few dates that are coming up so that you can put them in your diary. As mentioned in Mr Rob Paterson's initial email last year,

- there is to be a Saturday rehearsal in week 9, purely focusing on the chorus singing. This will be going ahead on Saturday, 25 March from 8.30 – 12 midday.
- This is great timing for us, as we will be performing a piece from Chitty Chitty Bang Bang on Grandparents Day - Friday 31st March week 10 with the Chapel starting at 8.45am. We would like to encourage as many people as possible to come along on Grandparents Day to hear one of the songs we have been working on this term.
- Holiday rehearsal, Miss Swift has requested a rehearsal for all speaking parts, Monday, 3 April, in the RGC, 8.30 – 12 midday

Please note – As Grandparents Day is the last day of term, there will only be rehearsals in week 10 (on Friday from 3.15 to 5pm) for the lead roles.

Thank you for your ongoing support, if you have any queries please feel free to contact us.

Kind regards

Miss Swift and Mr Dean
